Character Aptitude

Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability. Keep in mind there are no right or wrong answers in this section, it is designed specifically to analyze the athletes thought process. Answers need to be in multiple complete sentences. All single sentence answers will not be accepted.

If you witnessed someone cheating (school or golf), what would you do?

---

---

---

---

---

You're hanging out with a group of friends and some of them start picking on a younger, weaker, kid. What do you do?

---

---

---

---

---

Provide an example of when you were faced with adversity or an unfavorable situation. How did you handle it and what did you learn from it?

Golf IQ

The Golf IQ section is designed to assess how an athlete processes information strictly on a golf basis. The information given in this section will provide the GPC coaching staff an indication of the athlete's golf experience, knowledge and intuition. Please answer all questions in complete sentences to the best of your ability, again keeping in mind that there are no right or wrong answers.

Do you believe that great golfers are born or made?

---

---

---

If you could only use 5 clubs for an 18-hole round, which clubs would you use and why?

---

---

---

You have a one-shot lead going into your last hole, a par 5. You hit an excellent tee shot, in the middle of the fairway. You're 220 yards from the hole, but a water hazard is guarding the green. Do you go for the green in two and pursue an opportunity for eagle, or do you lay up?
